Budget Request: Assembly Bill #042- Representative Mansfield

In International Health Scholars we seek to inform ourselves and teach others about ethics in medicine and volunteering specifically on a global scale. This includes addressing issues such as voluntourism and white savior complex, specifically when working in different countries and with different cultures. We address these issues through group discussions, guest speakers, and readings in our biweekly meetings. Last semester our work culminated to a virtual trivia night in which we were able to raise $800 for COVID Mutual Aid-Salt Lake City.

Club Masks - Help members follow COVID-19 health and safety guidelines while representing the club. Masks were distributed as part of goody bags in COVID safe manner.

Club T-Shirts - We wanted to give members a chance to represent and advertise for the club in their day to day activities or any future events that might take place. Will be distributed in COVID safe manner at the end of Spring 2021 semester.

Goody Bags - Distributed at the end of Fall semester to celebrate and thank the club members for their hard work. Contained small individually wrapped food items, hand sanitizer, and the above mentioned mask. Was distributed in socially distanced and masked, COVID safe manner with limited contact.

Touchless Forehead Thermometer - Purchased to ensure that members are kept safe when in-person contact is made. This includes distribution of goody bags and future distribution of club t-shirts and any other items. Will also be used in the event that future COVID health and safety guidelines permit in-person meetings.

Budget Request: Assembly Bill #048- Representative Gonzalez

Each semester, the University of Utah Association for Women in Mathematics invites a speaker from a background traditionally underrepresented in mathematics to campus to give a series of talks and meet with members of our group. During their visit, a speaker gives a research talk and a broad audience talk on their career path and experiences as a mathematician and meets with interested members over scheduled coffee/tea and meals. All events are open to the public and will be advertised on Campus Connect as well as usual math department channels.

This semester, the events will of course be over Zoom. We are seeking funding to pay part of this speaker's honorarium.

Thursday, April 1, 2021 4:45:08 PM - Finn Reinemer

Audience: Requesters And Reviewers "Hi Yexalen, it looks like we made a mistake regarding your budget request and wanted to let you know as soon as possible. According to the most recent financial guidelines, ASUU cannot pay for annual membership fees for students. We are, however, able to fund the registration fees for the Virtual Conference. Page 4 of the Guidelines says, "Cost for registering organization members for local workshops, conferences, summits, etc that do not meet the conditions for travel, including virtual conferences. This does not cover individual annual memberships to organizations".

For this reason, we would like you to resubmit the request with the correct line items and ONLY the costs of the registration for conferences. NOTE: Your current application will continue through the approval process and we will simply require the second application for internal purposes. Do not worry about this causing a complete restart on the process. We just need a new budget request with the correct amount. Thanks."

This program provides free or greatly reduced tickets to all matriculated University of Utah students for various campus performances, productions, exhibitions, and other cultural events. WHEREAS, per the CFA website: "FAF Grants funding is available to College of Fine Arts student groups that are registered as a Sponsored Student Organization through Student Leadership & Involvement. Joint Resolution:

Denouncing Hate Speech Across College Campuses

Authors: Michelle Valdes, Ayana Amaechi, Momina Sial, Arunabh Sarkar, and C.J. Reid

Working definition of hate speech as derived in part from the United Nations and the University of Utah Non-Discrimination Policy 1-012: any kind of communication in speech, writing or behaviour, that attacks or uses pejorative or discriminatory language with reference to a person or a group on the basis of who they are, in other words, based on their religion, ethnicity, nationality, race, colour, disability, descent, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

WHEREAS, numerous hate speech instances have occurred on the University of Utah campus in the past and;

1. 2012 professor was verbally prejudiced against the LDS faith
2. 2017 posters found outside of the Student Life Center
3. 2017 vandalism of Gardner Commons Building during construction
4. 2019 multiple stickers and a banner displayed linked to hate groups
5. 2020 racial slur written into the frost of a car window
6. 2020 unapproved posters found near the Student Services Building
7. 2020 racial slur written on bulletin board in one of the Housing and Residential Education Buildings
8. 2020 BLM sign was defaced

WHEREAS, these instances create an environment that separates BIPOC students from the campus in general and;

WHEREAS, feelings of separation are contrary to the “sense of belonging” that contributes to college student retention and persistence (O’Keeffe, 2013; Strayhorn, 2018) and;

WHEREAS, students of color at the University of Utah and other predominantly white institutions (PWI) may feel separated from campus and the college experience because of racial stressors. Per student testimonial, these feelings of separation could impede academic success by creating an environment that could motivate students to leave the institution and may hinder academic success, as seen most recently in testimonial and conversations during the passage of JR2.

WHEREAS, hate speech silences the target group (Pg. 788) or individual, minimizing their contribution to public discourse and effectively destroying the free trade of ideas and;

WHEREAS, the current Student Bill of Rights affirms that “[s]tudents have a right to support and assistance from the University in maintaining a climate conducive to thinking and learning. University teaching should reflect consideration for the dignity of students and their rights as persons. Students are entitled to academic freedom and autonomy in their intellectual pursuits and development. Students have a right to be treated with courtesy and respect.”, and;

WHEREAS, University of Utah employees are professionally bound to abide by Policy 1-012 which states that employees cannot conduct themselves in an abusive manner whether that be physical, verbal, and/or non-verbal; they also are not permitted to intend harm or unwarranted distress, humiliate, and/or intimidate students in a way that may exploits a known physical or psychological disability and;

WHEREAS, the University of Utah has denounced hate speech; however, the act of combatting and enduring continued hate speech is disproportionately placed on the shoulders of BIPOC students and organizations in ASUU, the Black Student Union, Center for Ethnic Student Affairs, and others and;

WHEREAS, this act of denouncing hate speech as a member of the BIPOC community can and does cause racial battle fatigue (RBF) and;

1. Racial battle fatigue can cause both physical and mental harm as stated in this article.

WHEREAS, the University of Utah recently (2020) wrote an @theU article that featured Dr. William Smith, a faculty member in the College of Education (Education, Culture, and society) who spoke about the gravity of racial battle fatigue and;

1. Microaggression and Racial Battle Fatigue

WHEREAS, though free speech is consistently cited as the foundation as to why challenging hate speech is impossible, there is continual movement and constant precedent in challenging what is protected under the First Amendment in the law and outside such as:

1. In the 1942 SCOTUS case, Chaplinsky v. New Hampshire, it was ruled that speech that "tend[s] to incite an immediate breach of the peace" is unprotected under the First Amendment and;
2. In the 1964 case, Cox v. Louisiana, the Supreme Court ruled in favor of peaceful demonstrators, but acknowledged that freedom of expression is a qualified right, not an absolute and;
3. In the 1973 SCOTUS case, Miller v California, where it was ruled that obscenity was unprotected speech under the First Amendment and;
4. In the 1985 case, Cornelius v. NAACP Legal Def. and Educ. Fund, Inc., where the Supreme Court ruled that nothing in the Constitution requires the Government to grant access to all who wish to exercise their right to free speech on every type of Government property without regard to the nature of the property or, to the disruption that might be caused by the speaker's activities and;

WHEREAS, there is movement and active conversations in institutions of higher education most recently, in 2020, as to the where the lines should be drawn between hate speech and the First Amendment without other considerations and;

WHEREAS, hate speech specifically, disrupts rules and regulations set forth by the University by failing to promote diversity, equity and inclusion and fails to abide by the University of Utah mission statement that aims to "foster[s] student success by preparing students from diverse backgrounds for lives of impact as leaders and citizens" as displayed in this mission statement and;

1. Mission Statement from Academic Affairs

WHEREAS, limiting hate speech and having a productive marketplace of ideas are not mutually exclusive, and hate speech promotes narrow mindedness—not open mindedness—because one can limit hate speech without limiting challenging viewpoints and;

WHEREAS, the First Amendment protections of speech conflict with the Freedom of pursuit of life, liberty and happiness. Such as the effects on BIPOC students and citizens that hate speech can cause (listed above) and;

WHEREAS, the University of Utah holds "diversity, equity, and inclusion" to the highest regard and constantly prioritizes these goals in strategic planning moving forward, such as the addition of a Vice President for Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion and;

WHEREAS, the University of Utah takes pride in its students changing the world and encourages students to constantly challenge the status quo and create meaningful change in research, policy, education, and beyond.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Student Code of Conduct (Policy 6-400 Section 3A3) is revisited and it is seriously considered that it be changed to incorporate hate speech as a standard of behavior subject to behavioral sanctions, or mandatory educations, on a case by case basis, that may include, but not be limited to, the following:

- A written reprimand
- The imposition of a fine or payment of restitution
- Community service
- Probation
- Suspension
- Dismissal from the University of Utah.

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Non-Discrimination Policy (Policy 1-012) is revisited and there be a serious consideration that the discrimination definition (2-D-1) is changed to incorporate hate speech as part of a standard of behavior subject to behavioral sanctions, or mandatory educations, on a case by case basis, that may include, but not be limited to, the following:

- A written warning
- Reduction in pay
- Probation
- Suspension without pay
- Demotion
- Dismissal from employment at the University of Utah.

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT, there be a working group created within the Student Affairs department, including, but not limited to, student, staff, and faculty, who will continue considering University policy changes to formally denounce hate speech and/or advocate against hate speech on behalf of the University of Utah in spaces like the legislative cycle and the USHE report on a yearly basis.

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT, that this legislation is passed on to all college campuses in the state of Utah, and distributed to the PAC-12 schools via their respective student governments by the Associated Students of the University of Utah (ASUU).
